

Worldwide Ethics and Compliance Contact List

Since the 29th of July 2015, the Ethics Helpline is available. The Ethics Helpline is the preferred channel for requesting advice or reporting concerns about alleged situations, events, or actions that may be inconsistent with our Code. Nevertheless, the Contact List continues to be in force for countries from which we are currently unable to receive reports.

In the event that you observe or are made aware of conduct that is not within the spirit of the Code, or you are seeking guidance, you can contact your supervisor, your local Human Resources or Legal Department or the following channels:
