

Uwe Hochgeschurtz
Brand Chief Executive Officer
Opel and Vauxhall

Uwe Hochgeschurtz was appointed Brand Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Opel and Vauxhall and a member of the Stellantis Top Executive Team in September 2021.

Uwe Hochgeschurtz can look back on more than 30 years of experience in the automotive industry. He started his career at Ford in 1990, where he held various management roles. For example, he was Sales Director for Ford Switzerland and Product Manager and Head of LCV Marketing in Germany. In 2001, he moved to VW as Head of Worldwide Marketing LCV. Three years later, he moved to Renault, where he worked in sales, marketing and product planning before being appointed CEO of Renault Germany, Austria and Switzerland in June 2016.

He studied in Germany (Wuppertal & Cologne), Great Britain (Birmingham) and France (Paris Dauphine) and has a master's degree in business administration and management.